1.0 Introduction

Crosslinx Transit Solutions (CTS) is a consortium comprised of ACS-Dragados, Aecon, EllisDon and SNC-Lavalin. Metrolinx and Infrastructure Ontario selected CTS to deliver the Eglinton Crosstown Light Rail Transit (ECLRT) Project.

CTS is required to provide a quarterly report on its Community Benefits initiatives, as laid out in our Community Benefits and Liaison Plan. This is our second report for 2021. In this report you will find a snapshot of our work during the months of April, May, and June 2021. Unfortunately, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, many of the community benefits plans or initiatives have been cancelled, postponed, or reorganized by our stakeholders. In Q2 2020, CTS and Metrolinx Community Benefits worked together to restructure the program due to the pandemic.

Despite the setbacks, we look forward to continuing engagement with the residents and businesses on Eglinton Avenue, while celebrating the unique and diverse nature of these communities.

1.1 Relevant Definitions

To ensure clarity, we have defined the terms used in this report.

Historically disadvantaged communities

Groups that have been historically excluded or marginalized from the processes and decisions that affect them. This group includes low-income (people living within NIAs), racialized and immigrant populations, as well as military veterans. This definition is taken directly from our Project Agreement with Metrolinx.

Neighbourhood Improvement Areas (NIAs)

In March 2014, the City of Toronto, through the Toronto Strong Neighbourhoods Strategy 2020, identified 31 of its 140 neighbourhoods as falling below the Neighbourhood Equity Score and requiring special attention; these neighbourhoods have been termed Neighbourhood Improvement Areas.

Project Corridor

The Project Corridor is the area along and around Eglinton Avenue, between Weston Road in the west and Kennedy Road in the east. Proximity to the project corridor is used to determine whether residents hired onto the project are local, as well as to determine whether businesses are local. 2 kilometres is used to determine who is considered local.

Youth facing barriers to employment

Youth facing barriers to employment is a term that acknowledges that some youth are facing barriers that may include, but are not limited to: poverty, education, training and child care.

Equity seeking groups

Equity seeking groups include women, individuals who are members of visible minorities (a term that has fallen out of use in favour of the term 'racialized groups'), Aboriginal Peoples, persons with disabilities, and individuals of non-heterosexual orientation or non-cisgender identity.

Social enterprise

A social enterprise is an organization that applies commercial strategies to maximize improvements in human and environmental well-being – this includes maximizing stakeholder value over shareholder value. Buy Social Canada and the United Way's Toronto Enterprise Fund determine who is a social enterprise, and who is included in the tracked spend.

4.0 Employment, Training and Workforce Development

As CTS is an equal opportunity and inclusive employer, we recognize the positive value that a diverse and inclusive workforce brings to our organization. Crosslinx is committed to addressing and tackling all forms of racism particularly anti-black racism. We are committed to making our worksite safe and creating an environment that is free of all forms of discrimination. Weekly communication Project-Wide on project update and specifically including social justice remarks. CTS is committed to ongoing communication through the reinforcement of our H&D Free Policy and Tool-Box talks.

We are committed to making the pathway to Professional, Administrative, and Technical (PAT) roles in the construction industry more accessible to people facing barriers to employment.

We are prepared to build relationships with all local workforce agencies who work with individuals facing barriers to employment.

| Hires to date | 436 |
| CTS PAT Programs to date | 19 |

4.1 Policy

We use a system of targeted hiring approaches to employ people from historically disadvantaged communities, as well as residents from along the Project Corridor. It is called the CTS Candidate Referral Pipeline (“Pipeline”). The Pipeline is composed of strategies to get resumes sent to CTS, as well as efforts CTS is making to disseminate information about employment opportunities to these communities.

Our Community Benefits and Liaison Plan identifies three ways (self-directed, agency referral and agency recommendation) that local workforce agencies can work with their clients to access PAT roles at CTS. To help feed the Pipeline, we typically give these agencies notice of jobs that are about to be posted so they can better prepare their clients to compete against the rest of the labour market.

4.2 Practice

We are committed to being active in our outreach and transparent in our intent to hire from the communities outlined in the policy above. We participate in outreaches to known Black Community Groups on recruitment and employment related activities.

To be open and accessible, the CTS Community Benefits team sends out job postings to its Local Workforce Development and Recruitment Network (see Table 2) on a regular basis and encourages questions from the network about those jobs. The full list of local workforce agencies is included as Appendix 1.

*Note: Some agencies hold seats in multiple networks.

4.3 Performance

Due to COVID-19, Community Benefits activities with partners and stakeholders were delayed and refocused for implementation at a later date. This includes Humber College job fair, ACCES Employment speed mentoring, and various fundraising initiatives.

Since 2015 we have been working with a growing number of employment agencies that focus on providing underemployed or unemployed jobseekers with lucrative employment opportunities. We continue to work with partners and stakeholders to uphold this mandate, despite the COVID-19 pandemic.

5.0 Social Procurement and Support of Local Business

We are committed to supporting and building the capacity of small- and medium-sized businesses, disadvantaged business enterprises (those severely impacted by our construction), and social enterprises. Of interest are those businesses located along the Eglinton Corridor and adjacent to our construction sites, and social enterprises that create employment and training opportunities for historically disadvantaged and equity seeking groups who have multiple and systemic barriers to employment.

A local business is defined as a business that is located within two kilometres of the ECLRT Project Corridor. Ongoing support for the Project by local suppliers and contractors is important to CTS, and we encourage staff and subcontractors to purchase from local sources for goods and services wherever it is practical, economically reasonable and technically sound.

|---|---|
| Social Procurement Spend to June 30, 2021 | $ 832,051.15 (compared to $809,932.45 reported for Q1 2021) |
| Support of Local Businesses Spend to June 30, 2021 | $ 8,082,197.84 (compared to $8.02 million reported for Q1 2021) |

5.1 Policy

The CTS Community Benefits team maintains a local business and social enterprise list, available as a resource to all CTS staff. The team promotes the use of businesses on this list wherever possible. The Community Investments and Programs Lead acts as the internal champion for the social procurement initiative at CTS.

5.2 Practice

CTS continues to strengthen its partnership with Buy Social Canada as we believe that effective Social Procurement is the result of relationships that are intentionally built between purchasers and suppliers. Buy Social Canada helps us identify social enterprises that can provide products or services to the ECLRT Project.

To ensure that staff remain aware of our commitment to investing in businesses along the Project Corridor, CTS Procurement team prompts staff when making purchases to consider whether their purchase can be made on Eglinton Avenue (locally) or through a social enterprise.

5.3 Performance

Street Cleaning

To support local businesses, we've continued our partnership with Building UP, a social enterprise focused on creating employment pathways for individuals who are distant from the labour market. Together we deliver a street maintenance program to businesses located within 200 m radius of the station sites along Eglinton Avenue. The services are offered on a rotating basis weekly, with one team in the east corridor and one in the west. The program allows us not only to keep the streets clean but also to support social enterprises to increase their capacity in serving people facing barriers to employment. During the program participants gain valuable skills that allow them to secure employment in construction.

6.0 Community Improvements

We are committed to initiatives that develop the capacity of community members, demonstrate environmental stewardship, and promote social and economic inclusion.

Unfortunately, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, these initiatives were cancelled or postponed by our partners.

6.1 Policy

We have a commitment to improve as we build and leave communities better off than they were before we started building. Our program, CTS Builds Communities, is based on the simple notion of caring, and aims to demonstrate corporate social responsibility by being proactive and visible in the communities in which we work.

6.2 Practice

CTS will continue to develop and put in place policies and procedures that weave social, economic and environmental matters into business operations and core strategies. The principles of our community investment strategy are as follows: work in partnership with local communities; develop connections between our employees and residents and; environmental protection and sustainability.

This third element of environmental protection and sustainability is very important to us and encompasses the entire project – from design to construction to maintenance. We are building the Eglinton Crosstown LRT system with sustainability in mind at every stage, and therefore it is only fitting that we emphasize this in our CTS Builds Communities program.

6.3 Performance

Due to COVID-19, the planned events for Q2 2021 were cancelled or postponed. CTS will continue to support and participate in future virtual events organized by stakeholders.
